

future swaps to comfortably go on her wish list. Replacing in a sculptural freestanding and creates a focal point or a reclaimed-wood vanity of two small windows in to increase natural light. And a privacy wall for the toilet as a storage unit thanks to
"I'm a true believer in form together—and, of course, the and beautiful," Chris says.

brapenes
aste. 1

reclaimed style Mixing woods and metals delivers the rustic-modern look the Hutchersons desired. The reclaimed-wood vanity pairs with barn-style pendant lights, industrial mirrors, and streamlined chrome fixtures to create the perfect blend of old and new.

"I'm a true believer in form and function working together."

great idea!
A built-in storage cabinet provides a place for shampoo, conditioner,
and other bath products.

KEY FEATURES
1 White 1x10-inch horizontal poplar planks line the bath's walls and serve as a backdrop. They add rustic charm and hold structural columns needed for the shower's

Style Evolution

Smart space planning and designer details transform a dated master bath into a work of art.

writer and field editor Lisa Mowry photographer Christina Wedge